Richard Tregaskis's "Guadalcanal Diary" is better known, but "Into The Valley" is a hidden gem. Mr. Hersey, probably best known for writing "A Bell For Adano", which was subsequently made into a pretty good movie, knows how to tell a story. One almost feels as if one is sweating and dying with those young Marines on that godforsaken jungle island.

Into the Valley of the Moonking, is an album that some might be surprised to discover was released in 2009. Part of the lyrics for the song All My Bridges, seem kind of appropriate to the situation, "All my bridges are broken, My direction is lost, Yesterday's caught in the past, I'm stuck here I can't get across".
