The King of Elfland's Daughter is a fairy tale with deep, dark roots — as well as a love story rendered with piercing emotional honesty. It's also an unlikely immigration novel, about an elfin princess's attempts to deal with her fractured sense of self as she adjusts to the homeland of her beloved human husband.

Borderland - Terri Windling. It might be claimed that Borderland was the catalyst for its whole urban fantasy fad. This anthology perfectly embodies the notion of worlds colliding: every story occurs in "Bordertown," a chaotic, dystopian city that divides the world into the mythical "Elfland's." And in Bordertown, things are not as they look.
